

Default Question Block

The FRIPs Program (Freshman Research in Plants) is a specially-designed program to expose new college students to the vital and exciting research being done with plants and to encourage them to consider a research career in plant biology. Completed applications for the 2023-2024 program are due by 11pm on Sunday, September 3rd. Please send an email to Dr. Sarah Humfeld (humfeldS@missouri.edu) with additional questions about the program.
