Please include the following with your application:

- A) Unofficial transcript, including Fall 2023 grades
- B) Resume
- C) Personal Statement (1-2 pages) - Please tell us about yourself, why you are interested in journalism/strategic communication and personal experiences/characteristics that have influenced you and/or prepared you for a full-time experience this summer.
- D) Statement of Interests (1 page) - Please tell us what areas in journalism and strategic communication interest you and why. What prior experiences have influenced these interests? What skills are you hoping to build upon or gain this summer?

All of the above materials should be submitted as a single PDF document. You can combine files in Adobe Acrobat, Preview, or the CamScanner app (more information and instruction at undergradresearch.missouri.edu/molsamp).

If you found specific faculty members on the MU website who have interests that are interesting to you, please list them here (no more than 6). This listing will help us to understand your interests; but does NOT guarantee that these faculty will be available as faculty mentors:

Anything else you wish to tell us:

Please email your application as a single PDF attachment to The Journalism Graduate Studies Office at jourgraduatestudies@missouri.edu.

Letters of recommendation and endorsement can be sent electronically or by mail to: Yukendra Wynn (yewynn@missouri.edu) at 181 Gannett Hall, University of Missouri, Columbia, MO 65211 and are due Friday, March 15, 2024.

The deadline is March 15, 2024
